CATHOLIC SERVICES APPEAL 2015:

Next week we begin Catholic Services Appeal 2015. Your support of CSA will benefit both parish and diocesan ministries, including training our future priests, the ongoing education of teachers and faith formation staff, proclaiming Christ's message through the media, evangelizing our youth, and providing assistance to those struggling with family issues, hunger, and homelessness.

Please prayerfully consider how sharing your gifts will benefit many – in our parish and far beyond. Next week we will learn more about the specific programs CSA supports. I look forward to your participation and working together to accomplish more of our Lord's work.

THANKS to all of you who have sent me cards and prayed for me during my surgery and recovery. Slow recovery period but is getting better. Thanks again.

SUMMER SCHEDULE: Mark your calendar for the Mass changes, effective Memorial Day Weekend,, May 23.

Saturday: 5:00 Mass switches to St Gregory.
Sunday: 9:00 (not 9:30) at St. Gregory,
11:00 at Our Lady of Fatima,
11:30 in Spanish at St Gregory.

A great Christian writer is the unknown author of this ancient homily from the second century. This meditation on Easter pertains to the entire season we celebrate through Pentecost.

Peace
Fr Tom

What is happening? Today there is a great silence over the earth, a great silence, and stillness, a great silence because the King sleeps; the earth was in terror and was still, because God slept in the flesh and raised up those who were sleeping from the ages. God has died in the flesh, and the underworld has trembled.

Truly he goes to seek out our first parent like a lost sheep; he wishes to visit those who sit in darkness and in the shadow of death. He goes to free the prisoner Adam and his fellow-prisoner Eve from their pains, he who is God, and Adam's son.

The Lord goes in to them holding his victorious weapon, his cross. When Adam, the first created man, sees him, he strikes his breast in terror and calls out to all: "My Lord be with you all." And Christ in reply says to Adam: "And with your spirit." And grasping his hand he raises him up, saying "Awake, O sleeper, and arise from the dead, and Christ shall give you light.

"I am you God, who for your sake became your son, who for you and your descendants now speak and command with authority those in prison: Come forth, and those in darkness: Have light, and those who sleep: Rise.

I command you: awake, sleeper, I have not made you to be held prisoner in the underworld. Arise from the dead; I am the life of the dead. Arise, O man, work of my hands, arise, you who were fashioned in my image. Rise, let us go hence; for you in me and I in you, together we are one undivided person.

"For you, I your God became your son; for you, I the Master took on your form; that of slave; for you, I who am above the heavens came on earth and under the earth; for you, man, I became as a man without help, free among the dead; for you, who left a garden, I was handed over to Jews from a garden and crucified in a garden.

"Look at the spittle on my face, which I received because of you, in order to restore you to that first divine inbreathing at creation. See the blows on my cheeks, which I accepted in order to refashion your distorted form to my own image.

"See the Scourging of my back, which I accepted in order to disperse the load of your sins which was laid upon your back. See my hands nailed to the tree for a good purpose, for you, who stretched out your hand to the tree for an evil one.

"I slept on the cross and a sword pierced my side, for you, who slept in paradise and brought forth Eve from your side. My side healed the pain of your side; my sleep will release you from your sleep in Hades; my sword has checked the sword which was turned against you.

"But arise, let us go hence. The enemy brought you out of the land of paradise; I will reinstate you, no longer in paradise, but on the throne of heaven. I denied you the tree of life, which was a figure, but now I myself am united to you, I who am life. I posted the cherubim to guard you as they would slaves; now I make the cherubim worship you as they would God.

"The cherubim throne has been prepared, the bearers are ready and waiting, the bridal chamber is in order, the food is provided, the everlasting houses and rooms are in readiness; the treasures of good things have been opened; the kingdom of heaven has been prepared before the ages."

Todo el mes de abril es tiempo pascual y las lecturas, aunque parecen fantásticas con las apariciones de Jesús, son muy reales

y hablan fuertemente a la realidad humana de duda, alegría y, finalmente, fe. El segundo domingo se celebra de manera especial la Divina Misericordia. En el tercer domingo, se celebra el día del Buen Pastor. De alguna manera, esta conmemoración resume el mensaje de todos estos domingos, con la seguridad del cuidado de Dios, que se afianza en el recuerdo de que este Buen Pastor ya ha entregado su vida por sus ovejas. Es como un resumen de todos los misterios de la salvación y también del compromiso al cuidado de otros que se asume como discípulos misioneros. La Pascua domina casi todo el mes, pero también hay celebraciones importantes de santos, como santa Catalina de Siena, doctora de la Iglesia; san Isidoro; san Francisco Solano; santa Kateri Tekakwitha; san Luis María Grignon de Montfort; y san Marcos. Hay también grandes misioneros que se conmemoran en este mes, como san Pedro Chanel y los mártires colombianos de San Juan de Dios. No hay grandes celebraciones patronales marianas en América en abril, pero en Cataluña, España, se celebra el día 27 a la Virgen de Montserrat. Algunos pueblos en América, por influencia de los conquistadores, también la veneran.
