A FAMILY PERSPECTIVE: If we want to be happy at home we must commit (lose ourselves) to our family. If we try to be independent from others (save ourselves) we end up lonely and alone. Happiness is found in commitments. The Gospel is true: We save our life by losing it!

by Bud Ozar

During his five-day East Coast whirlwind visit (Sept. 22 to 27), Pope Francis will reach out to the powerful in Washington, D.C., and New York - meeting with President Obama and speaking before both the U.S. Congress and the U.N. General Assembly. But side visits will include some places on the periphery of U.S. life. The pope will visit a Catholic Charities food program in downtown Washington, a Catholic school in Harlem that serves largely Latino immigrant children, and a prison in Philadelphia to meet with inmates and some of their families. The papal itinerary also makes clear that the first pope from Latin America will make Latino Catholicism a centerpiece of this visit.

Harsh criticisms meted out by Pope Francis on free market capitalism have sparked backlash from some fiscal conservatives. Some are bracing for more criticisms from the pope, this time directed specifically at the culture and economy of the U.S. Joseph Kaboski, a professor of economics at the University of Notre Dame and president of an international organization of Catholic economists, said he views the pope "as neither pro nor anti-capitalist, but instead a measured critic." Kaboski said he is "confident Pope Francis finds much to commend" in U.S. economic life. At the same time, the pope "would also criticize the vast disparities in income and wealth...point to the poor, and argue that they are not fully participating in society," Kaboski said.

Peace, Fr. Tom

THE LADDER COMMUNITY CENTER

The Ladder Community Center is a 501-C non-profit corporation, with funding through the Community Foundation for Oceana County. They are an intergenerational, ethnically diverse gathering; a safe place to gather, unifying the community, partnering with other organizations to serve the people of our community...together!

They envision a gathering place for friends, neighbors... our community - for the young and still young at heart - a safe, structured place to gather - free of charge. As they get rolling, these are potential things they see happening: shuffle board, cards, arts & crafts classes, dodge ball, ping pong and pool leagues with tournaments, a space to work-out with equipment, coffee house, music, live music.

Grand Opening is targeted for sometime this autumn.

SYRIAN REFUGEES: In response to inquiries about a local response to the tragedy of refugees fleeing upheaval in Syria, the Diocese of Grand Rapids has set up an opportunity for online donations to CRS. Catholic Relief Services is partnering with churches in Greece, Macedonia, Bulgaria and Serbia, providing essential needs like food, shelter and medical care. Bishop Walkowiak asks for your support. More info and the ability to donate online can be found at www.dioceseofgrandrapids.org

Hoy el Evangelio nos recuerda que los que identifican a Jesús como Señor necesitan profesar la fe por medio de obras que reflejen su relación íntima con él. De hecho, el culto que le rendimos a Dios, semana tras semana, siempre debe permanecer vinculado a la jornada de vida que llevamos fuera de la iglesia. Dicho vínculo aparecía en la proclamación de los profetas, quienes, como hoy Isaías, anunciaban que los que hacen justicia son los que están cerca del Señor.

A veces criticamos a los que separan la fe de la vida, simplemente porque no vienen a Misa los domingos pero sí vienen cuando hay bautizos, bodas o celebraciones especiales. ¿No es importante también reconocer que nosotros mismos, a veces, separamos la fe de la vida cuando nos contentamos con darle culto a Dios en la iglesia pero sin ayudar al necesitado en la calle?
