"In the poor and outcast we see Christ's face; by loving and helping the poor, we love and serve Christ."

Pope Francis

Recent data released by the U. S. Census Bureau confirms a change many demographers have been predicting for years: Latinos now outnumber non-Hispanic whites in California. According to census data, there are 14.99 million Latinos living in California, compared with 14.92 million non-Hispanic whites. This shift makes California the largest U. S. state with a majority that identifies as “non-white” and the fifth state overall. Hawaii, the District of Columbia, New Mexico and Texas have also experienced this shift. This demographic move is particularly striking in California because the Latino population is relatively young: the median age is 29, compared with a median age of 45 for non-Hispanic white citizens in the state.

However, according to data released last year by the Pew Research Center, the number of Hispanics and/or Latinos identifying as white is also growing, a factor that might affect future census numbers. According to Pew, in 2000, 35 million Americans identified as Hispanic, Latino or Spanish on census surveys. But in 2010, an estimated one million of these Americans had changed their self-identification to “white.”

Regardless of future shifts in these census numbers, this change is particularly meaningful for the Catholic Church in the United States. Despite a decline in the number of U. S. citizens who identify as Catholics, more than 50 percent of Latinos in the United States self-identify as Catholics. As more self-identified Latinos begin to populate the United States, the church will be afforded an opportunity to see many more Catholics in the pews.

On another note, the Vatican on August 10 announced that Pope Francis has decided Catholics, like their Orthodox brothers and sisters, annually will mark September 1 as the World Day of Prayer for the Care of Creation. The day of prayer, the pope said in an August 6 letter, will give the faithful an opportunity to ask God’s forgiveness “for sins committed against the world in which we live.”

Peace, Fr. Tom

WISDOM FROM CHILDREN...

"When I'm president, nobody will have to pay for food they need, like protein, fruits, vegetables and dairy. They will have to pay for junk food and candy though, because you don't really NEED that stuff. And everybody can buy a house for $100 so there won't be anybody homeless. Every Sunday I'll have a buy one get one free sale, so the people that have $100 can give their free one to a person that doesn't have $100."

LA MISA

La Misa del Domingo es un espacio sagrado en el que los miembros de la comunidad dedicamos a Dios. Asistimos a la Liturgia Dominical para alabar a Dios, Escuchar su palabra, reflexionar, hacer oración en sus diferentes formas; a través del canto, las oraciones y en forma privada.

Participamos para alimentarnos con su Palabra y la comunión, recibiendo el Cuerpo y la Sangre del Señor. La Misa dura solamente una hora. Por eso es responsabilidad de toda la comunidad crear el ambiente propicio para la Celebración de Misa.

Muchas personas vienen desde muchas millas a la redonda para satisfacer la necesidad que tenemos de alimentarnos espiritualmente.

Por respeto, cortesía y educación al sacerdote, a los miembros de la comunidad de fe debemos colaborar para tener una celebración litúrgica propia.

Es deber de todos los participantes evitar interrupciones.

Cuando un niño llora, grita o juega dentro de la Iglesia interrumpe la celebración. Es responsabilidad de la madre o el padre salir y atender a su bebe cuando llora. Si el bebe llora es porque tiene sed, hambre, necesita aire o que le cambien de panal. Si el niño es más grande y está corriendo por toda la Iglesia los padres deben sacarlo al recibidor.

Afortunadamente nuestra Iglesia tiene el lugar necesario para los padres con niños inquietos y llorando. Este lugar es a la entrada de la Iglesia, tiene sonido y se pueden escuchar y ver lo que pasa dentro de la Iglesia. A este lugar le llamamos vestíbulo o recibidor. Cuando los niños ya van a la escuela es responsabilidad de los padres y madres de familia enseñarles a participar en la Misa con una actitud de respeto y oración.

Si alguien está tosiendo continuamente o necesita hablar con otra persona también debe salir para evitar interrupciones. Obviamente los celulares deben estar apagados.

En la Iglesia toda persona es bienvenida. Nos da gusto que venga la familia completa a la Misa porque es así que las nuevas generaciones aprenden y se educan. Gracias por su colaboración. Queremos que la Misa sea el espacio donde nos llenemos de la energía de Dios para toda la semana.

Paz, Sr Guadalupe y P. Tomás
